

Withdrawal from the College

Students who are withdrawing from the College either during or after a term, with no intention of returning, should submit this completed form to the Registrar's Office for processing prior to the last day to withdraw from a course for the semester. Withdrawals received after that date will be effective for future enrollments. Students who need to stop out for a period of time but intend to return should use the Leave of Absence forms located at www.keystone.edu/registrar.
