

Keystone College Accreditation and Authorizations

Keystone College is an accredited institution and a member of the Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE) www.msche.org . Keystone College's accreditation status is accreditation reaffirmed. The Commission's most recent action on the institution's accreditation status on March 4, 2021 was:

To note that the Mid-Point Peer Review has been conducted. To request a focused report, due September 1, 2021, providing further evidence of (1) improvement of key indicators of student success, including retention and graduation rates (Standard IV); (2) adequate fiscal and human resources, including physical and technical infrastructure, to support operations (Standard VI); and (3) improved financial viability and sustainability (Standard VI). To direct a focused team visit following submission of the focused report. The next evaluation visit is scheduled for 2023-2024.

MSCHE is an institutional accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). The Commission makes available the opportunity to submit third party comments regarding an institution's compliance with standards for accreditation, requirements of affiliation, policies and procedures, and applicable federal regulatory requirements using its Complaints and Third Party Form found on its website www.msche.org

Keystone College is authorized to grant degrees by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Information regarding the Pennsylvania Department of Education's (PDE) compliant procedure is available on the PDE website at education.pa.gov.

Keystone College is also approved to for veterans' benefits.

The Department of Business, Management, and Technology at Keystone College has received specialized accreditation for its business programs through the International Accreditation Council for Business Education (IACBE), 11374 Strang Line Road, Lenexa, KS, USA.

3/25/2021