

Admissions/Athletics/Campus Visits

- Scheduled in-person appointments will take place, following the guidelines provided by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Department of Health, and the CDC. Appointments will be spaced apart to allow for cleaning in between appointments.
- Prior to arriving on campus, visitors will be asked to complete wellness checks to monitor symptoms. This will include a daily temperature reading to verify that they are not experiencing any COVID-19 symptoms. These symptoms may include fever or chills, cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, fatigue, muscle or body aches, headache, new loss of taste or smell, sore throat, congestion or runny nose, nausea or vomiting, and diarrhea. If any visitor has a temperature or is experiencing any symptoms, the visitor will be asked to reschedule the appointment.
- Once a visitor arrives on campus, hand sanitizer will be available for them to use.
- Visitors will be expected to wear face coverings and practice social distancing, including during tours that involve entering buildings. Disposable masks will be available if a visitor does not have one.
- Meetings will take place in rooms large enough for Admissions Counselors and Coaches to maintain six feet of distance between themselves and the student and their family.
- Following each meeting, any high touch surfaces will be wiped down with disinfectant wipes.
- Virtual appointments will be still be available as well. “HelloCampus” will be used to offer remote campus tours which will be live-narrated by tour guides.
- Preparations for small group visits that allow for social distancing will also be used.
- In-person events, including open houses and accepted student days, will also follow the guidelines provided by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Department of Health, and the CDC.
